

Lion Rugby FC Girls

Firstly, I'd like to wish you all "Happy New Year". I hope you enjoyed your New Year break and that you are ready to get back to training.

February turned into a quiet month as our U16 and U 19 matches, at the Police club, were washed out by a heavy rainstorm. These games will be rescheduled into the remaining two super Sundays.

Our first matches in the 7 a-side super Sundays will be held this Sunday, 28th of February. There are more teams competing, than in the 10's, but I think this gives us an advantage as some clubs have weakened their teams by making the split.

U16 will once again join with the Police girls and also the Flying Kukris. This will hopefully mean we have plenty of substitutes so nobody has to play for too long.

The first match for U16 is at 11:48. There will be a shuttle bus from Tai Hang Tung and we will meet at 9:45am near the THT changing rooms. U19 matches begin at 2pm. Match Schedule is as follows:

- U16
- 11:48 Lion/Police Vs DeA-2
- 12:39 HKU/SKS Vs Lion Police
- 13:13 Abn/VF Vs Lion/Police

- U19
- 14:04 Abn/VF Vs Lion
- 15:12 Lion Vs DeA-1
- 16:03 Lion Vs Police

The 14th of March will see the final 7 a-side super Sunday at Kings Park. The draft schedule is now available and details are as follows:

- U16
- 09:19 Lion/Police Vs DBP
- 10:27 DeA-1 Vs Lion
- 11:18 Lion/Police Vs HKFC

- U19
- 09:53 Lion Vs HKU
- 11:52 DeA-2 Vs Lion
- 12:26 Tuen Mun Vs Lion

We will have one more competition at the end of April and then that's effectively the end of this season!

We do have an invitation to a beach rugby competition in May and I am still looking at one more friendly match before the summer.

Some of you may be wondering what has happened to our U14's. Well, as we didn't have enough players to form our own team they have been joining with Tin Shui Wai for training and competitions. I am hoping that we will be able to bring in new players and have our own team again next season. If you have friends who may want to join please ask them to come to practice before the summer.

Upcoming events

Trials will be held for U14, U16 & U19 peninsula 7 a-side teams for a showcase match to be played at the Women's 7's. Please watch your e-mail for dates.

I did send out an e-mail about some rugby events that may be of interest. If you are interested let me know.
